

To continue building on the designs so far we would like to see them potentially incorporate some depth similar to these 3 dimensional examples pictured below.

We also like the gradient background pictured both above and below (note the Audio logo below is only for background reference).

